

Born That We Might Be Born Again

Ryan Cornett

♩ = 86 Marching

1. Not to kings nor to princ - es did
2. How the dark must have fled from the
3. Lo, the shep - herds de - part - ed with her - alds ap - pear an - gel - ic light haste, ev - er swift

3

4

Pro - claim - ing God has come to O, but their tid - ings far ex - Seek - ing the great - er won - der

5

dwelt with us here But to ceed - ed the sight Ne'er had of Hea - ven's gift So may God Him -

low shep - herds who in the deep dark-ness dwelled come such a mes - sage a - stound - ing yet true:
 we run to Je - sus, then tell of His birth:

self has pro - vid - ed the off - 'ring for sin

To Coda

Good news was heard, and great - est joy they be - held
 "Christ, Lord and Sav - ior, now is born un - to you"
 "God in the high - est brought to us peace on Earth!"

His child is born that we might be born a - gain

Born is a King, Son of God and son of Man

"Glo - ry!" we sing, come to Earth is Hea-ven's Lamb God Him-

D.S. al Coda for Refrain